Quotes and Reflection

"The only hope of healing for these people is in near total destruction. It is only when all is lost that a scrap of hope appears. There is no other way. If these people are allowed to continue as they are, there really is no hope. Their religion is already half-pagan, and if they are allowed to continue, they will ultimately be completely pagan and all of the revelation will have been for nothing." – John Oswalt

"Holiness is not an experience you have; holiness is keeping the law of God."
– David Martyn Lloyd-Jones

"God's holiness and his nature are not two things, they are but one. God's holiness is his nature, and God's nature is his holiness." – Thomas Brooks

"Isaiah needed a long-range perspective on his ministry or else he would feel like he was accomplishing nothing." – Warren W. Wiersbe

WE READY OURSELVES FOR WORSHIP

Devotional Preparation

"Once Isaiah confessed his sinfulness and his need for deliverance ("I am ruined"), God reached out through the instrumentality of a seraph to bring atonement. This was an act of God's grace; Isaiah did nothing to accomplish his atonement. Isaiah offered no sacrifices, did not promise to be a missionary to gain it, and had no power to save himself from certain ruin. To help Isaiah understand that God was removing his guilt, a seraph took a coal from an altar and touched Isaiah's unclean lips." – Gary V. Smith

"The continuous song had a single theme: the Lord's holiness, concerning which we learn two truths. First, Hebrew uses repetition to express either a superlative, as when 'pure gold' in 2 Kings 25:15 translates 'gold gold', or a totality, as when 'full of tar pits' in Genesis 14:10 translates 'pits pits'. But here for the only time in the Hebrew Bible a quality is 'raised to the power of three', as if to say that the divine holiness is so far beyond anything the human mind can grasp that a 'super-superlative' has to be invented to express it and, furthermore, that this transcendent holiness is the total truth about God." – Alec Motyer

Call to Worship—Psalm 23:1-4

Leader: The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

People: He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.

Leader: He restores my soul.

All: He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Leader: Eternal God, this morning through our worship, teach us the paths of righteousness and lead us to the works you have prepared for us to do that we would walk in them.

WE DECLARE THE ETERNAL WORTHINESS OF GOD

WE HEAR FROM GOD'S WORD

New Testament Reading—Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"Therefore they are before the throne of God,
and serve him day and night in his temple;
and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore;
the sun shall not strike them,
nor any scorching heat.

For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of living water,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader: The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord stands forever!

People: Thanks be to God!

WE CONFESS OUR UTTER UNWORTHINESS BEFORE GOD

Call to Confession—James 2:14-17

What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Silent Confession and Lament

WE ENCOUNTER AND REJOICE IN THE AMAZING GRACE OF GOD

Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace—John 15:3-5

Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

Leader: Children of God, give thanks to to God for giving us the ability to bear much.

People: Thanks be to God!

Leader: Now may the peace of Christ be with you all!

People: And also with you!
