Quotes and Reflection

"And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." — Luke 1:31-33

"Our assurance, our glory, and the sole anchor of our salvation is that Christ the Son of God is ours, and we in turn are in him sons of God and heirs of the Kingdom of Heaven, called to the hope of eternal blessedness by God's grace, not by our worth." — John Calvin

WE READY OURSELVES FOR WORSHIP

The Kingdom of God and the Church by Brandon Crowe (ligonier.org)

David is the most important king in the Old Testament. He was a man after God's own heart (1 Sam. 13:14), and he was the paradigmatic king. Further, and crucial for understanding the kingdom in the New Testament, it was with David that the Lord made a covenant promising an everlasting kingdom. This is recounted in 2 Samuel 7. This divine promise is known as the Davidic covenant. In this covenant, the Lord promises to build David a house—that is, a dynastic kingdom—for his offspring (2 Sam. 7:11–12). The kingdom of David's offspring would not be temporary but would last forever (vv. 13, 16). The king would be God's son, ruling over God's people as God's chosen representative (v. 14). While David ruled on God's behalf with great success, David's greater Son would rule over God's people forever. The Davidic kingdom would never end. The coming of this Davidic offspring (v. 12) fulfills the Abrahamic promise of an offspring from Abraham (Gen. 15:4) and ultimately fulfills the promise that the offspring of the woman would bruise the head of the devil (3:15).

David plays a key role in establishing the kingdom of God in the Old Testament. But the Davidic covenant looks beyond David to an even greater Son who would rule forever. David was a great king who ruled God's people well and protected them from their enemies. But he was also a deeply flawed man, and his kingdom tottered in the latter years of his reign.

Be Thou My Vision

Trinity Hymnal #642

Call to Worship— Psalm 47 (Selected)

Leader: Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy!

People: For the Lord, the Most High, is to be feared, a great King over all the earth.

Leader: He subdued peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

People: God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

All: Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

Leader: O victorious King, rule over our hearts today and receive the praise that belongs to your name alone!

WE HEAR FROM GOD'S WORD

Scripture Reading—Psalm 72:1-11

Give the King Your Justice

Give the king your justice, O God,
and your righteousness to the royal son!
May he judge your people with righteousness,
and your poor with justice!
Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people,
and the hills, in righteousness!
May he defend the cause of the poor of the people,
give deliverance to the children of the needy,
and crush the oppressor!

May they fear you while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon, throughout all generations!
May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass,
like showers that water the earth!
In his days may the righteous flourish,
and peace abound, till the moon be no more!

May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth!
May desert tribes bow down before him,
and his enemies lick the dust!
May the kings of Tarshish and of the coastlands
render him tribute;
may the kings of Sheba and Seba
bring gifts!
May all kings fall down before him,
all nations serve him!

Reader: The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord stands forever!

People: Thanks be to God.

WE CONFESS OUR UTTER UNWORTHINESS BEFORE GOD

Call to Confession— Deuteronomy 8:11-14

“Take care lest you forget the Lord your God by not keeping his commandments and his rules and his statutes, which I command you today, lest, when you have eaten and are full and have built good houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks multiply and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery,

Silent Confession and Lament

WE ENCOUNTER AND REJOICE IN THE AMAZING GRACE OF GOD

Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace—Col. 1:13-14

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Leader: People of God, give thanks to God for delivering us into the kingdom of His victorious Son!

People: Thanks be to God!

Leader: Now may the peace of Christ be with you all!

People: And also with you!

Warrior

Bobby Giles, Dave Moisan, and Neil Robins

David rejoiced in God alone; He was raised by grace to an earthly throne
But Christ the son demands our praise; For His kingdom has no end of days

Lord, you rejoice in victory, when another lost soul bows to its knee
Rising tide of righteousness; With the shield of truth upon your breast Oh the Warrior!

Honor and majesty divine; Around his sacred temple shine Grace and
In crowns of glory, not of gold

Your hand shall find out every foe; And as a fiery furnace glows
With raging heat and living coals; They will feel your wrath upon their souls

Oh the warrior will conquer all; The world will fall before His feet
The warrior will conquer all; The world will fall before His feet
